

A Paid Advertisement

Networking and Equipping to Make Disciples for Christ

Osaka International Church Looking for Senior Pastor

Osaka International Church (OIC), Osaka city, Japan, is praying for God to send us a new senior pastor. We feel that this position will be filled best by someone who:

- is called by God to pastoral ministry and walks daily in fellowship with God.
- is an ordained Minister with previous pastoral experience (essential)
- is able to teach the Bible in a way that challenges people to respond to the calling of the Holy Spirit to change their lives.
- is skilled in relating cross-culturally to all ages with a heart to grow our ministry.
- has a pastor's heart of love for feeding the sheep and encouraging fellowship.
- Biblical counseling skills for emotional needs a plus.
- is a native or near-native English speaker.

OIC is an international church comprised of 60% Japanese people and a variety of other nationalities (North America, Europe, Asia, Africa).

TO APPLY

If you feel you meet this part of our search criteria and feel God's leading, please contact us by email.

You will be given the steps to take for the application process.

About Osaka International Church

For a closer look at our church please see our website.

=====
A paid announcement sent out by JEMA as a service to the JEMA community.
This does not imply any particular endorsement by JEMA.
=====